Description

Antique Fold-Out Games or Patience Table in mahogany with satinwood stringing. A fine piece from the Regency period. English, circa 1800. A fine quality, elegant mahogany ladies patience, card or gaming table with satinwood stringing. The bi-fold top opens out to reveal a baize-lined playing surface, resting on sliding lopers. A single drawer and corresponding dummy drawer, with delightful solid brass lion head ring pulls. All raised on elegant square tapering legs, united by an X-form stretcher, with the original brass castors. This compact card table is of excellent quality and makes a stylish lamp table when not in use for games or playing cards.
