Description

A superb early 20th-century Sheraton-style mahogany display cabinet, finely crafted with satinwood inlay, exceptional astragal glazing and elegant tapered legs. A refined statement piece ideal for formal living spaces, hallways or period interiors. Key Features Satinwood Inlay & Refined Sheraton Lines Delicate inlaid borders to the doors and panels, with the clean, elegant proportions typical of Sheraton revival craftsmanship. Exceptional Astragal Glazed Doors Beautiful geometric glazing bars with oval and rectangular motifs - a standout feature that elevates the design and allows perfect visibility of displayed items. Shaped Pediment with Urn Finial A classic urn-shaped finial crowns the cabinet, enhancing its formal presence and architectural silhouette. Quality Mahogany Veneers Rich flame mahogany to the lower doors with excellent figuring, finished in a warm, glowing tone. Interior Display Shelves upper shelves behind glazed doors, ideal for china, glassware or fine collectibles. Lower Storage Cupboard shelved interior behind door - perfect for discrete storage of tableware, linens or accessories. Original Maker's Label Retains its early factory label, c...
