Description

A Victorian button back armchair, circa 1880, with square back and low arms and sprung seat, raised on oak channel moulded legs with original brass castors. A very comfortable chair of medium size, suitable for use in a bedroom or as an occasional chair. 73cm high, 60cm wide at the front edge, the seat 50cm deep and 34cm high. In good structural condition with no wobbles to the frame, the seat is good and just new top covers are needed. I can arrange re-covering with my upholsterer and supply fabric if required - please get in touch for further details.
