Description

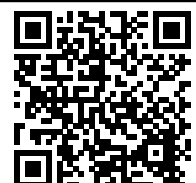

A rare Kutch Indian silver dish modelled as a fish entwined by a snake, dating to the late 19th century. The surface is entirely hand-chased with intricate scale, foliate and geometric decoration, typical of high-quality Kutch workmanship. The sculptural detail is crisp, with excellent repoussé work and applied feet beneath. A charming and unusual figural piece, suitable as a sweetmeat dish, card tray or decorative display. Measurements Height: 2 cm (0.79?) Length: 16 cm (6.3?) Width: 6.5 cm (2.6?) Weight: 79.19 g (2.55 t oz) Condition Excellent antique condition, retaining sharp chased detail and a clean surface. A well-preserved and attractive example. Shipping & Packaging Fully tracked and insured delivery (included). Professional packaging and careful handling. Recycled materials used where possible. Please study all photographs as they form part of the description. Questions are welcome.
