Description

This rich three dimensionally decorated wall charger is a majolica pottery highly decorative example by the well regarded Austrian Gebrüder Schutz factory. It is circular with a deep relief design of a naturalistic view of a row of three baby birds perched on a slender stem with sunflowers and clematis rising above in a semi-circular design in mixed tones of light brown over a vivid blue ground with an incised floral and foliate pattern. A most eye catching and pleasing piece of wall art. It is in very good condition with no damage or restoration and fully marked on the reverse. Austrian, circa 1890 Height 30cm x width 30cm x depth 3cm
