Description

This elegant William IV mahogany is made from solid mahogany throughout, it has developed a rich, warm colour that highlights the grain beautifully. The raised gallery back adds a subtle decorative flourish. To the front are two well-fitted drawers, each with ebonised turned handles, offering practical storage. Stamped maker's mark "H. Mawer & Stephenson", a respected 19th-century firm known for quality cabinetmaking. The table stands on finely turned legs, all set on porcelain castors. A handsome and versatile piece of genuine period furniture, full of charm and ready for the home.
