Description

Set of 10 Herend porcelain tea set in the Queen Victoria (VBO) pattern from Hungary. The design is characterized by its hand-painted, multi-coloured butterflies, flowers, and sprigs of blossom, with a gilded rim and scalloped edges. The set includes a teapot, a sugar basin, a creamer, and multiple teacups and saucers. Herend's Queen Victoria pattern, which was introduced at the Great Exhibition in London in 1851, is one of the brand's most recognizable and historic designs. The intricate details and high-quality porcelain are a hallmark of the Herend manufactory. Each piece is hand-painted and accented with 24-karat gold. Approximate Dimensions & Weight: Teapot Incl.
