Description

A Nice Art Deco Silver-Plated Cocktail Shaker Designed by Keith Murray. With its tall, tapered body, streamlined handle, and spout complete with a chain-linked cap, this elegant piece epitomizes the sleek sophistication of 1930's barware. A removable lid reveals a spacious interior, making it as functional as it is stylish - ideal for the discerning host or cocktail enthusiast. Measurements: Height: 9 1/4" (approx. 23.5cm) Width (spout to handle): 7 1/2" (approx. 19cm) Total weight: 830g Excellent vintage condition with light surface wear typical of age and careful use. There are two small knicks to the silver plated edge around the top of the shaker, as shown in photographs for accuracy.
