Description

A magnificent, fine and impressive antique Victorian English sterling silver jewellery casket made in the Art Nouveau style; an addition to the Victorian silver collection. This magnificent Victorian sterling silver jewellery casket has a serpentine rectangular form. The surface of this antique jewellery box is embellished with exceptional embossed floral and foliate decoration, all amidst scroll designs. The decoration to the anterior and posterior sides of the casket incorporates a scrolling leaf and ribbon bordered cartouche; the cartouche to the posterior surface is vacant. The anterior cartouche bears the contemporary engraved inscription 'Presented by The Mayor Alderman and Burgesses of the Borough of Tynemouth, To John Foster Spence Esquire, with the honorary Freedom of the Borough, in recognition of his many eminent services, 1894*'; the engraved inscription could be professionally removed upon request. The original hallmarked hinged cover is ornamented with further exceptional embossed floral and foliate decoration, bearing two further cartouches in reflection of the body. The cover is surmounted with an exceptional cast sterling silver finial modelled in t...
