Description

Superb quality mid 18th Century George II mahogany games table with fold-over top c.1750. Stands against the wall as a shapely little side table or open the top (supported on the hinged rear leg) to make a games table for four people with a green baize playing surface. A particularly fine example of the form featuring candle stands and guinea scoops for each player. Crossbanded apron with rounded end and featuring a small mahogany lined drawer in the front. Raised on slim cabriole legs with shaped tops and pad feet. Excellent colour and condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshop. Width: 34" (86.5 cm) Height: 28" (71 cm) Depth: 16" (40.5 cm)

Internal Ref: 37663
