Description

An outstanding quality George IV multi-functional figured mahogany three sectional antique extending dining table stood on fourteen finely turned and reeded legs with original brass cup castors. The table has a beautiful figured solid mahogany book matched top. The table consists of a central six legged drop leaf dining table which could be used on its own as a small dining table which would seat 6 people or extended with the two 'D' ends to make a 9 foot 7 dining table seating 10 people. The two 'D' ends can be put together to make another small dining table seating 4 people or used separately against the wall as a pair of console tables or serving tables. The table is attributed to Gillows of Lancaster & London.
