Description

Art Deco coffee table designed by J.P. Hully for P.E. Gane & Co. Ltd., circa 1930. Hully worked with Marcel Breuer in Bristol during the 1930s and this rare table has all the hallmarks of the modernist design influence. A rare 1930s Art Deco coffee table with striking design. With beautifully figured book-matched veneer to the top and under tier, with rounded corners, raised on four oblong section supports with angled tops. P.E. Gane ivory label to underside. Width 75cm Depth 50cm Height 60cm Signs of historic woodworm to the legs in places, which we have re-treated for good measure.
