Description

Antique Victorian Aesthetic period mahogany elbow chair with curved arms and turned finials. Stylish and comfortable 19th-century seating. English, circa 1890. A striking Victorian mahogany armchair featuring an X-frame design with finely reeded detailing and beautifully turned finials. Upholstered in a pale yellow-gold cord fabric, the chair offers both style and comfort, with its original sprung seat, gently reclined back, and supportive rolled headrest. The chair remains solid and sturdy, with upholstery in good, serviceable condition - ready to enjoy as-is, or a great candidate for reupholstery to suit your interior.
