Description

This is a good early 20th century Khamseh carpet in really super condition dating from around 1910. The carpet has a very attractive colour palette with an indigo field of birds, animals and other tribal motifs centred by three hooked medallions and framed by multiple borders and barber poles. The detail in the weaving is very good for this type of rug and it is a very practical size at 189cm by 125cm. It is in excellent condition ready for use in the home. UK insured packing and delivery is £20.
