Description

A fine and impressive pair of antique Victorian 0.84 carat diamond, 18 carat yellow gold and silver set drop earrings; part of our Victorian diamond jewellery collection. These fine and impressive antique drop earrings have been crafted in 18ct yellow gold with silver settings. Each earring is embellished with a suspended feature claw set 0.33ct and 0.25ct Old European cut diamond. The feature diamonds are each suspended from a yellow gold linear bar ornamented with five Dutch cut diamonds, in array of silver collet and crescent shaped pavé settings. The earrings bear a further Old European cut diamond to the apex, completing the design. These earrings, for pierced ears, secure to the reverse with a post and butterfly fastening. These earrings have been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as 18 carat gold and silver. These impressive antique diamond earrings are supplied with two IDGL diamond grading report certificates for the feature stones, in addition to an IDGL diamond grading report card for the supporting stones. These Victorian diamond drop earrings are exemplary showcases of 19th-century craftsmanship. ...
