Description

A magnificent Zanzibar blanket chest, expertly crafted from richly patinated Padouk and enhanced with elegant brass edging. The front, sides, and top are adorned with decorative brass panels and studwork. Inside, the chest remains clean and retains its original candle boxes, an appealing original element that reinforces its historic role and provenance. A striking and versatile piece – perfect for storing blankets, pillows, or cherished belongings at the foot of a bed. Its warm tones and intricate brass work also make it an eye-catching coffee table or decorative accent in any living space. With its deep patina, striking brass embellishments, and solid construction, the chest offers generous storage while serving as a captivating focal point. Whether placed in a hallway, bedroom, or drawing room, it stands as a testament to masterful craftsmanship and the rich cultural exchange of Zanzibar's heritage.
