Description

A 19th Century deep-seated armchair in the manner of a Howard and Sons Club Armchair. Having a solid frame which includes integrated turned front legs and splayed back legs with brass original castors to all. Traditionally upholstered throughout with a sprung seat and what appears to be a feather back cushion which is integrated and a loose seat cushion - also feather. A very well spec'd armchair with a very deep seat a good head rest and wide armrests making it very comfortable overall. Currently covered in a green damask fabric that is not in great condition and is very old, possibly it's original cover. We can facilitate upholstery through our referral program (see last photo) Width 88cm x Depth 117cm x Height 77cm, with a seat width of 52cm, a seat depth of 78cm and seat height of 39cm (inc cushion) There is a matching footstool available to purchase separately.
