Description

Hindley & Sons Armchair C.Hindley & Sons, 134 Oxford Street, London. (1820-1892) Stamped Castors with a number to the back leg. Width 78cm x Depth 90cm x Height 88cm with a seat width 50cm height of 34cm and depth 58cm. In my opinion, a rare example. Rare to see this design, which is an enduring design frequently attributed as 'howard style' and associated with Howard and Sons, but this one by C.Hindley and Sons who were an exhibition quality maker in their own right. The upholstery has been restored and renewed structurally and has been lined with a replica of the original fabric found that was found underneath during restoration.
