Description

A charming pair of late Victorian balloon-back chairs dating from around 1880–1900, featuring beautifully carved crest rails and elegant cabriole legs. These classic salon chairs have a timeless silhouette, typical of the period, with gently curved frames and decorative carving to the lower back. The seats are upholstered in a warm, soft velvet-like fabric in a dusky rose tone — clean, comfortable and in very good vintage condition. The solid frames remain stable and well-preserved, showing only light wear consistent with age. A graceful pair ideal for a bedroom, hallway, reading corner or as occasional chairs in a period-inspired interior. Seat Height: 44 cm Very good vintage condition. The frames are sturdy, the joints sound, and the upholstery remains in good, usable order. Minor age-related marks expected for genuine Victorian furniture.
