Description

A fine small silver and blue enamel guilloche enamel miniature carriage timepiece. Guilloche enamel on four sides of the clock with a very attractive engine turned pattern. The mid/light Blue guilloche enamel is truly wonderful. The clock sits upon four silver bun feet. The gilt dial with attractive Roman hour numerals and blued steel spade hands. The hinged silver back door opens to reveal the fine movement and the inside of the case retaining the original gilding to the silver. The 7 day movement with high quality thick plates, shaped shoulders and integral turn key has a fine original lever escapement, made by The Geneva Clock Company the movement is stamped JTC and numbered 56624. The Hallmarks are for London 1923 and GS for George Stockwell Silversmiths.
