Description

This fine library table is crafted from rich, beautifully figured Cuban mahogany, displaying a wonderful patina across its generously sized rectangular top. The table features a pair of drawers to the front with working locks and key, with matching dummy drawers on the reverse, allowing it to stand proudly as a freestanding piece within a room. The superbly turned legs are a particular highlight—well-proportioned, crisp in detail, and fitted with brass casters for easy movement. The timber throughout is of excellent quality, showcasing depth of colour and desirable grain patterns. A good sized table, ready for the home.
