Description

A Superb Edwardian octagonal campaign-style drum table, crafted circa early 20th-century and made in richly toned mahogany with gilt-tooled leather inset top. This versatile and characterful table combines the elegance of Edwardian furniture with subtle military influences typically found in high-quality campaign pieces. The octagonal frieze is fitted with eight drawer fronts - four functional and four dummy, arranged to maintain perfect symmetry around the table. Each drawer is fitted with brass campaign-style recessed handles, enhancing the refined yet utilitarian aesthetic. Raised on a four-splayed pedestal base with square brass-capped toes and brass castors, the table moves easily and stands with excellent presence. It displays a rich, warm patina and well-aged character throughout. A stylish and practical centre table, library table or occasional desk - ideal for traditional, country house, eclectic or vintage-inspired interiors. Key Features Octagonal drum table form with excellent proportions Gilt-tooled leather inset top within a mahogany frame Eight drawer fronts (four functional, four dummy) Campaign-style brass recessed handles Four-splayed pedestal base ...
