Description

This elegant Victorian walnut coffee table is a beautifully crafted period piece featuring a richly toned walnut veneered top with an exquisite central marquetry inlay. The oval surface is further enhanced by fine line inlays and delicate corner motifs, giving the table a refined and balanced decorative character. The base is a true showcase of 19th-century craftsmanship: a solid, beautifully carved pedestal with four sweeping legs, each finished with intricate scroll and leaf details. Stable, solid, and visually impressive. Dimension Height = 53cm (21") Width = 115cm (45") Depth = 88cm (34.6") Features Victorian era walnut coffee table Oval veneered top with warm, natural walnut grain Central marquetry medallion + decorative line inlays Hand-carved pedestal base with elegant scrolling legs A refined, timeless statement piece for classic interiors Condition The table is in very nice antique condition. The top surface is clean and presents beautifully, with intact veneer and crisp inlay work. The carved legs are solid, and all joints are stable with no looseness.
