Description

Trollope & Sons Club Style Armchair Trollope & Sons founded in 1778, were one of the largest prestige furniture makers during the 19th century, and participated at the Great Exhibitions in London & Paris. In the shape and spec' of a Howard and Sons Club Chair. C.1860 Width 85cm x Depth 115cm x Height 76cm, with a seat height of 45cm and a seat depth of 70cm. Now sympathetically restored to its undergarments, most of which is original traditional upholstery of an unusually high standard with ivory coloured horse hair, fine linen hessian and what I believe is fustian a high quality fabric with unusually deep and fur like pile. In my opinion this is the highest quality original traditional upholstery I have seen or known of. We have another Trollope & Sons armchair available, please see the last image.
