Description

An impressive carved Italian console table in the early 18th century style, the green marble top with moulded edge above a bold carved base, with egg and dart moulded frieze and central cartouche, flanked by fruiting and foliate swags and supported on shapely winged Herm figures terminating in Godolphin feet, raised on a simulated marble plinth with further egg and dart carving. Circa 1900. A good quality table faithfully recreating the original models of table made in circa 1720. In good presentable condition, with no damage. H: 92 cm (36 1/4") W: 132 cm (52") D: 60 cm (23 5/8")
