Description

A rare early 20th century paint advertising display unit. Dimensions in inches: H 14" x W 31" x D 4". Age: 1920 - 1940. Origin: Paris (France). Condition: Aged. Overview: Every now and again we uncover truly on off artifacts, this is one of those items in the form an early 20th century paint manufactures (ROBBIALAC) point of sale / advertising display. The display is encased in an ebonised pine frame with sections of painted metal bicycle mud guards and stamped with gold leaf manufactures logos centrally. With its original support hooks still in place at the rear, lots of lovely, crackled paint as shown. Just a brilliant thing for any automotive or cycle enthusiast to own.

- An antique aged example
- Deep natural patination
- One of the central logos is dented revealing the material underneath
- Worn and naturally aged paper surface
- The top left corner of the frame is chipped
- This item is solid in form and stable.
