Description

This distinguished antique mahogany bedframe exemplifies fine craftsmanship and classical architectural design. The impressive headboard features richly grained, book-matched mahogany panels framed by hand-carved floriate and scroll motifs, supported by elegant turned columns with Corinthian-style capitals. The footboard mirrors these refined details, showcasing carved trim, fluted accents, and rosette embellishments, all set atop intricately carved feet for a cohesive and commanding presence. The bed's warm, natural patina enhances the depth and character of the mahogany, offering both visual richness and timeless appeal. Sturdy, carved side rails provide structural integrity while maintaining the bed's ornate profile. Designed for modern usability, this frame comfortably accommodates a super king-size mattress, making it an ideal fusion of antique beauty and contemporary practicality.
