Description

A beautiful antique Victorian silver and citrine large plaid brooch. Made in Edinburgh in 1900 by Macdougalls and retailed by them in their London shop. The brooch has four engraved bosses and intricate carvings of mythical celtic beasts above beautiful celtic knotwork. There is a crisp set of hallmarks on the back with a long pin in a "C" clasp. Large plaid brooches are usually bought to secure a large tartan plaid or tweed capes. They are useful and very collectable. WEIGHT; 70 grams or 2.3 ozst. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months
