Description

A good example of a large solid silver tray with an ornate repousse design of cherubs and a raised scalloped edge, most likely used on a dressing table. It is stylish and good quality, weighing approximately 129g. It is clearly hallmarked for London, 1896 and the makers Goldsmiths & Silversmiths Co. It is in good condition for its age. There are some faint surface marks here and there and a few small dinks to the border but there are no major damages and it displays beautifully. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
