Description

A superb and larger than usual Edwardian silver bar brooch. The frame is of heavy quality silver and is set with a central large tiger's eye cabochon, surrounded by seed pearls. There are four further tiger's eye cabochons within a seed pearl border. The pin is secured by a 'C' clasp and although the brooch is not marked, it tests as silver. Tiger's eye is thought to ward off negative energy, attract prosperity and give clarity of mind. An imposing and striking piece. Dimensions below.
