Description

A fine pair of hand coloured stipple engravings after Richard Westall 1766-1836. The pair are titled Innocent Mischief and Innocent Revenge and picture children playing. The pair are in very good antique condition with particularly bright colours. The prints retain the original gilt frames, and verre eglomise painted glass which also has the titles beautifully inscribed on it. The pair have had the prints refitted to the frames recently. The prints are wonderfully decorative period pieces and are ready to hang. C.1820 Overall sizes in inches each, including frames: 18 ½ by 21 ½
