Description

For offer is a stunning Nantgarw Cabinet Porcelain Plate. Circa 1818-20. The plate was probably decorated in the Sims workshop in London. It is beautifully decorated with a central flower spray, including ox eye daisy, with further flowers in coloured enamels and tooled gilt at the turquoise border. It has a gilt shaped rim. Impressed 'NANT-GARW CW' mark Diameter: 23.8 cms The provenance is from a private collection London. In first class condition with beautifully vivid colouring and with minimal gilt wear. One tiny 2 millimetre chip on the turquoise border, as shown in the photograph, from being displayed that is hardly discernible but mentioned for accuracy. Ref: 2422

Internal Ref: 2422
