Description

This is a rare and most unusual design, with shortened armrests to facilitate the playing of an instrument. It is strong and well-constructed of an unusual type of mahogany, which is more of the colour associated with walnut. The square slightly outward-tapering back has a central cane panel and is flanked by short arms with turned spindles and turned column supports, over a circular seat with a cane panel (in need of restoration), and raised on four outward-tapering legs united by cross-stretchers. Circa 1870 Excellent colour and surface patination. Height: 33 ins; 84 cms Seat Height: 18 ins; 46 cms Width across arms: 17.5 ins; 44.5 cms Depth of seat: 17 ins; 43 cms.
