Description

A monumental mid-19th century bank of mahogany factory drawers. The unit comprising of 2 large free standing units with. One with 15 drawers and the other with 5 drawers and 2 large shelved cupboards and all the drawers retaining the original cast iron cup handles. We have added 2 hard wearing quartz Carrara marble tops so the units can be separated and used in different places if you don't quite have a 4.64 metre spare. The exposed ends of each section suggest it was part a longer piece, so to achieve a polished look, we've used salvaged time period mahogany tabletops for the ends; if you'd like to split it for different locations, we can easily remove one end and match it to another piece, sourcing additional mahogany to finish the ends at no extra charge. Individual widths Bank of drawers 230cm drawers and cupboard 234cm
