Description

A good quality three-tier mahogany whatnot dating from the early 19th century. It has elegant turned supports adorned with roundels and turned finials. Each shelf has a decorative 'sausage and pea' border and it stands on bulbous feet with brass castors. It is in good condition for its age and is a good quality piece with lovely rich timbers. There are some minor signs of age and use, some light marks and knocks and a couple of small sections of border are missing on one side but overall it displays very well. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
