Description

A good quality set of folding steps dating from the early 20th century. They are made from pine and have a wonderful patina with splatters of old paint. They are strong and sturdy although, given their age, we would recommend they are not suitable for heavy use and are rather a decorative or display item. They are in good original condition. There are some small knocks, surface marks and a couple of old chips but no major damages. They have been cleaned and polished and display beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £30
