Description

A good quality pair of small upholstered tub chairs dating from the early 20th Century. They stand on square legs with brass and ceramic castors below. The chairs are a traditional shape with deep seats, buttoned backs and scrolling arms. They have good quality sprung frames and each has a feather filled cushion. The upholstery is not new but is excellent quality and is generally clean and tidy. There are a few small marks and some light areas of wear but nothing detrimental. The chairs are perfectly usable as they are or provide a good strong frame for recovering. The chairs are in good condition for their age and are very comfortable. There are some light marks and small knocks around the legs but nothing detrimental. Approximate Measurements : Width across arms : 31" (79cm) Depth : 27" (69cm) Height : 32" (81cm) Seat Height : 16" (41cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
