The design of this carpet is found on a small group of carpets made in the town of Joshaghan, the design is also influenced by the well know 'Mohtashem' Kashan carpets. The carpet has an inscribed panel to the center which bears the same inscription as all the other known examples; it translates as follows, 'Hasabe Farmaieshe Jenabe Mula..(in order of Mr ...most probably Mula or spritual leader ..).....then many Doa (pray) for the glory and health of the himlater Sale (year of) 1304..... 1886'. It is thought that these carpets were woven for use in a mosque. This is an excellent furnishing carpet of substantial weight, suitable for heavy domestic use, it would be ideal in a dining room or large family room, a good country house carpet.
