Description

A fine and decorative pair of landscape paintings by William Mellor, depicting atmospheric views in Swaledale, Yorkshire. One painting is titled Kisdon Force, Swaledale, the other The Ure, Swaledale, each capturing flowing water set within richly coloured wooded valleys and distant hills. The scenes are painted with Mellor's characteristic attention to light, movement and natural detail, creating calm and balanced compositions. Both works are oil on canvas, presented in their original and highly decorative gilt frames, each with a titled artist's plaque. The canvases measure approximately 12 inches by 15 inches each. The paintings are in good condition and display exceptionally well as a pair.
