Description

A large and very deep English antique pine pedestal desk, dating from the 1920s. It has two drawers across the top, a shelf inside the left pedestal, and three sliding trays inside the right pedestal. All drawers and trays are full depth and in good condition for their age, retaining a little rustic charm. The back is also tidy, making it suitable for positioning anywhere in a room. Leg room height is 24", with a width of 19". The desk is currently in bare wood, having recently been stripped of its original paint. It can be purchased as it is for £745, or £847 if you'd like it waxed. For delivery, the desk separates into three sections, with the top unscrewing from the pedestal bases. Dimensions: height 30.5", width 59", depth 35" (approximately 77 cm x 150 cm x 89 cm).
