A stunning and quite unusual Art Deco figured walnut side table. This was made in England, it dates from the 1930's. It has a stylish and useful design, there is a single drawer and three open shelving spaces. This is nicely finished on all sides including the back, so it can be used as a free standing item. The walnut grain patterns and colour tones are gorgeous throughout. We have had this stripped and re-polished to a very high standard, the condition is excellent throughout.
