Description

Antique 20th century Jacobean style oak dining set, comprising a dining table and six matching dining chairs. The dining chairs are beautifully carved, particularly to the backs, with intricate detailing, and feature overstuffed seats upholstered in a stylish spotted fabric. Each chair stands on bobbin-turned legs with a supporting stretcher, showcasing solid construction and durable frames. The dining table is equally impressive, standing on a refractory-style base with a beautifully carved frieze and base, complementing the chairs perfectly. The entire set displays gorgeous grain and colour throughout, reflecting the fine quality craftsmanship of the period. A very highly desirable and rare example, this set is sure to make a stunning addition to any home. The table is solid and the overall condition excellent. This exceptional set truly has to be seen in person to be fully appreciated.
