Description

Antique 20th century plant stand, very well made and of fine quality, showing excellent craftsmanship and solid construction throughout. Stood on three square legs with a chunky, well-balanced base, providing great stability and presence. Beautifully decorated with subtle reeding, adding understated detail and character to the design. Finished in a gorgeous golden oak colour with stunning grain visible throughout, complemented by a nicely shaped round top. A very desirable example in great condition, and a perfect addition to any home.
