Description

Antique 18th century linen press cupboard in mahogany, featuring a unique and elegant design with a double door upper section containing four sliding shelves, ideal for storage and display, and four drawers to the base, all retaining their original brass handles. The piece stands on a solid plinth base and comes apart into two sections for ease of transport. Very well made and of good quality, showcasing beautiful grain and rich colour throughout. It shows some minor signs of wear consistent with age, adding to its character, but remains overall in very good condition. This is a rare and highly desirable example, perfect as a statement piece and practical addition to any home, complete and highly collectible for enthusiasts of fine antique furniture.
