Description

Antique 20th century good quality cupboard in oak. The piece features a two door cupboard to the upper section, opening to reveal two fixed shelves offering useful storage space. Below is a singular drawer fitted with its original brass dropper handles, adding to the character and charm of the piece. Stood on square legs and finished with a small raised gallery to the top, it displays gorgeous grain and colour throughout. In good condition and of a very desirable size, this attractive cupboard would make a perfect addition to any home.
