Description

Royal House Antiques is delighted to offer for sale this absolutely stunning, French Louis XIII Revival heavily carved cabinet with inset Marble plaques. Please note the delivery fee listed is just a guide, it covers within the M25 only for the UK and local Europe only for international, if you would like an accurate quote please send me your postcode and I'll provide you with the exact price. I also have the matching, extending dining table with ten chairs and large display cabinet listed under my other items. What a find, this piece is important, decorative and looks sublime in any setting, the original versions of these were made in Paris Circa 1610-1620, they were usually commissioned for grand castles and were quite gigantic, some topping four meters tall, this piece thankfully is a Revival example which dates to the mid 1800's Circa 1860, by that time city life had overtaken those grand country estates and cabinet makers were producing more practical pieces. As you can see this cabinet is heavily carved all over, it has a Renaissance looking Maiden to the very top followed by reclining nudes in a forest garden setting, there are Eagles, Swans, Neoclassical Maidens...
