Description

Antique 19th century fine quality inlaid cabinet in walnut. The upper section features a glazed front with a key, revealing two shelves inside, ideal for displaying treasured items. Stood on a plinth base, the front is beautifully decorated with satin wood inlay and brass mountings, showcasing exquisite craftsmanship. The cabinet displays gorgeous grain and colour throughout, reflecting its high-quality construction. Very well made and in excellent condition, this desirable example is a perfect addition to any home. Its nice, small size makes it especially versatile and charming.
