Description

An outstanding antique Georgian mahogany sideboard dating to circa 1820, of impressive scale and craftsmanship. This striking piece is richly constructed in beautifully figured mahogany and features exceptional hand-carved lion masks and paw feet, lending it a bold and stately presence. The bow-fronted design is complemented by intricate flame mahogany panels, gadrooned mouldings, and elegant reeded detailing to the top sections. The sideboard offers ample storage with two curved cupboards, central drawers, and a large lower drawer — all with locks and brass escutcheons. The craftsmanship throughout is of the highest quality, with deep, crisp carving and superb proportions. A true statement piece ideal for a grand dining room, hall, or interior with classical taste.
