Description

An antique 20th century oak dresser of good quality and solid craftsmanship. The upper section features two shelves and four hanging hooks beneath a beautifully domed top, while the base comprises two central drawers and a double-door cupboard with a single internal shelf. All original knob handles are intact, adding to the authenticity of the piece. The front is beautifully carved, showcasing fine attention to detail, and the dresser is very well made and of sturdy construction. It comes apart into two sections for ease of transport. With gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable and practical piece, perfect as an addition to any home.
