Description

Queen Anne-Revival Walnut Triptych Dressing Table Mirror, c.1920s-1930s A decorative three-panel dressing-table mirror with an arched Queen Anne outline. The central panel is mounted on a tilting mechanism, and the flanking wings are hinged so they can be angled for dressing. The border surrounding each mirror plate is in solid walnut, giving the piece a warm period colour. It stands securely on small turned bun feet, and the rear panels are solid stained beech. Original mirror plates are retained, with natural foxing and age bloom visible — most noticeably to the left-hand wing, where a few larger patches are present. Dimensions (approx.): Height: 68.5 cm (27 in) Width fully open: 84.75 cm (33 3/8 in) Width with wings at roughly a quarter-turn: 79 cm (31 1/8 in) Frame depth: 3.25 cm (1 1/4 in) Condition: Good decorative condition for age. Original glass with areas of foxing, particularly on the left-hand wing. A few small traces of historic worm to the stained beech backboard — long inactive, sealed, and barely noticeable. Hinges and tilt action operate correctly, and the mirror stands secure on its turned bun feet.
